

Missing woman seen in Asda at Almondvale in Livingston according to police

Police have issued a renewed appeal for information to help trace Santra Saju missing from the South Gyle area.

Enquiries have confirmed that the 22-year-old was within Asda at Almondvale, Livingston on Friday, 6 December 2024 between 9.10pm and 9.45pm

She had previously been in the Burnvale area of Livingston around 6.30pm the same evening.

Santra is described as 5ft 6 inches, of Indian ethnicity, slim build, with short black hair and was last seen wearing a black jacket with a fur hood.

Inspector Alison Lawrie from Corstorphine Police Station said: "We now know that Santra picked up a black and white shopper style bag from an address in Burnvale on Friday evening, but she did not have it when she entered the supermarket. The bag is distinctive and someone may remember seeing her carrying it.

"We are continuing to review CCTV footage and have released images of Santra from the supermarket in the hope that someone recognises her.

"Extensive enquiries are being carried out in an effort to trace her. If you have any information please contact Police

Scotland on 101 quoting incident number 3390 of Sunday, 15
December 2024.”
