

Pedestrian killed in Dundee Street crash named by police

A pedestrian who died following a fatal road crash on Dundee Street, Edinburgh, has been named as local 20-year-old Henry Farron.

The incident took place around 5.30pm on Sunday, 1 December, 2024, and involved a grey Volvo XC60.

Emergency services attended, but Henry was pronounced dead at the scene.

His family have released the following statement: "We are heartbroken by the death of our beloved son and brother Henry. He will be so very much missed by all who knew and loved him."

The driver of the Volvo car, a 51-year-old man, was arrested and has been released pending further enquiries, which remain ongoing.

Sergeant Dave Waddell said: "Our thoughts remain with Henry's family and friends, as they come to terms with their tragic loss.

"An investigation into the circumstances of the crash remains ongoing and we continue to ask for any witnesses, or anyone with information, to please come forward."

Anyone with information should call officers on 101, quoting incident 2556 of 1 December, 2024.
