

Police ‘increasingly concerned’ for welfare of missing Dundee man with links to Edinburgh

Police in Dundee have issued a new image of 39-year-old Craig Taylor, reported missing in the city.

He was last seen around 8.45pm on Friday, 22 November, 2024, in the Menzieshill area of the city.

He is described as white, 5ft 7ins, slim, very short black hair and facial hair. When last seen he was wearing a black jacket, black gilet, blue jeans and black Nike trainers.

Craig is also believed to visit Perth, Fife and Edinburgh on occasion.

Extensive enquiries are ongoing to trace Craig, including door to door and CCTV reviews.

Inspector Robb said: “It is unusual for Craig not to be in contact with his family for this length of time and we are growing increasingly concerned for his welfare.

“We are asking people to look out for him and let us know if you see him or know where he might be.

“Craig, if you see this appeal, please let someone know you are safe and well.”

Anyone who can help is asked to call Police Scotland on 101, quoting reference number 3574 of Monday, 9 December, 2024.
