

Police release CCTV images following 'incident' in Gracemount area on 5 November

Police Scotland has released images of three men officers believe might be able to assist with enquiries into an incident on 5 November 2024 at Captains Road, in the Gracemount area of Edinburgh.

The first male is described as a white, aged between 20 and 30 years-old, around 5ft 8ins tall with a slim build and a bushy brown/red beard. He was wearing a black hat, black tracksuit top with white logo on left chest and white lining around shoulders and black trainers.

The second male is described as a white, aged between 30 and 40 years-old, with a medium build and black hair. He was wearing a black jacket with a fur hood and black trousers.

The third male is described as a white aged between 18 and 20-years-old, 5ft 9ins tall, with a medium/athletic build, dark eyebrows and black hair. He was wearing a black snood, black crew-neck Nike jumper with small white swoosh on left breast, black trousers and black trainers.

Detective Inspector Steven Dick said: "We are keen to talk to these males as we believe he may have information which could assist with our enquiries.

"The males pictured, or anyone who may recognise them, are asked to please contact us."

Anyone with any information is asked to contact 101 or make an anonymous report to the charity Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.
