

Seb and Max gain Eric Liddell community award

Seb and Max Jellema, from south Edinburgh, have been awarded the Eric Liddell Community Hero award for charitable fund raising efforts.

Since 1 January 2023 and 2024 respectively, Seb and Max have been running 3km a day, raising money for charity.

They ran 100km throughout September as part of The Eric Liddell Community's Olympic Year "Flying Scots" Challenge, to raise awareness and donations for the campaign.

With family also present the brothers received their award from local MP The Rt Hon Ian Murray, who is pictured third from the left.

