

Two teenagers charged with attempted murder of 16-year-old youth in Stenhouse

Two 17-year-old males have been arrested and charged in connection with the attempted murder of a 16-year-old male in Edinburgh.

The incident took place in Stenhouse Avenue West, around 9pm on Sunday, 22 December, 2024.

The victim was taken to hospital, where he remains.

The pair are expected to appear from custody on Tuesday, 24 December, 2024.

Officers are continuing to follow further positive lines of enquiry.

Detective Sergeant Kim Tennant said: "We would like to thank members of the public for their assistance with our enquiries into this attack.