

Willie's shot of genius lifts cup

Willie Murray, left, and Keith Anderson received their trophy for winning Postal Bowling Club's senior pairs at the annual prize giving.

In the final Willie and Keith lived dangerously and where two shots down going into the last end against David Proudfoot and Colin Turnbull.

However, with the last bowl Willie drew a third shot to clinch victory by the narrowest of margins.

