

Witness appeal after 87-year-old woman seriously injured in crash

Police are appealing for information following a serious crash on St John's Road in the Corstorphine area of Edinburgh.

The incident happened around 5.45pm on Monday, 30 December, between the Drumbrae roundabout and Corstorphine Bank Drive.

It involved a black Ford Fiesta and a pedestrian, an 87-year-old woman.

Emergency services attended and the pedestrian was taken to the Royal Infirmary of Edinburgh where her condition is described as serious.

The road was closed for crash investigation work and re-opened around 1am on Tuesday, 31 December.

Sergeant Paul Ewing said: "Our enquiries are continuing to establish the full circumstances and we are keen to speak to you if you saw what happened.

"We are also asking anyone driving in the area at the time to check their dash-cam to see if it has captured anything that could assist with our investigation."

If you can help please call Police Scotland on 101, quoting incident number 2432 of Monday, 30 December, 2024
