

Hunter Cup for Martin at Craigmillar Park

The first competition of the year at Craigmillar Park Golf Club has been won by Martin Davies who captured the prestigious Hunter Cup at stake in the annual three-club event.

Despite failing to score at the first of the nine holes Martin went on to notch a highly commendable 23 stableford points. As well as a trophy, presented by ex-captain George Hunter, right, Martin picked up a £30 sweep prize.

He was closely followed by Ian Macdonald on 22 points who won £20 in the sweep.

Several players carded 21 points but Stuart Duncan won on a count-back and won £10 in the sweep.
