

Storm Éowyn – scenes in Edinburgh

Storm Éowyn is romping through Edinburgh today with high winds and rain.

These are some of the scenes around the city.

Storm Éowyn causes disruption in Edinburgh on 24 January 2025.
There are several trees down near Muirhouse
Picture Alan Simpson

Storm Éowyn causes disruption in Edinburgh on 24 January 2025.
There are several trees down near Muirhouse
Picture Alan Simpson

Storm Éowyn causes disruption in Edinburgh on 24 January 2025.

Everyone was told to stay at home.

This is the scene on a deserted Queensferry Road in Edinburgh
Picture Alan Simpson

Storm Éowyn causes disruption in Edinburgh on 24 January 2025. Scaffolding and tarpaulins have been ripped from the Western General Hospital where earlier two workers were seen on the roof.

PHOTO Alan Simpson

Storm Éowyn causes disruption in Edinburgh on 24 January 2025. Scaffolding and tarpaulins have been ripped from the Western General Hospital where earlier two workers were seen on the roof.

PHOTO Alan Simpson

Storm Éowyn causes disruption in Edinburgh on 24 January 2025. Tesco stores were closed on Friday. PHOTO Alan Simpson

Storm Éowyn causes disruption in Edinburgh on 24 January 2025. Tesco stores were closed on Friday. PHOTO Alan Simpson

Scottish Fire has appealed to the public to restrict calls to real emergencies

Banners at the RSA have ripped in the high winds whistling along Princes Street

Deserted Princes Street

George Street largely deserted