

Car stolen following break in to house in Livingston

Police in West Lothian are appealing for information following a housebreaking at a property in Livingston.

The incident happened around 8pm on Saturday, 1 February, on Deanswood Park in the Deans area of the town.

The property was broken into and car keys taken along with a black Vauxhall Viva car, registration SG65 VGZ.

Detective Constable Lynn Myles said: "Our investigation to trace those responsible is ongoing and enquiries so far indicate there were two men seen in the area at the time.

"We are keen to find out more and are asking the public to check private CCTV, doorbell footage and dash-cams to see if they have captured anything that could assist officers."

"Also, please get in touch if you see the car that was taken."

Anyone who can help is asked to contact Police Scotland on 101, quoting incident number 3565 of Saturday, 1 February, 2024.
