

Motorists advised to avoid Howden Hall area following a crash

Motorists are being advised to avoid the Howden Hall area following a crash.

Emergency services were called to the scene on Howden Hall Road at Howden Hall Drive and Alnwick Hill shortly after 2.30pm.

A pedestrian has been taken to hospital and officers said that their enquiries are ongoing.

A Police Scotland spokesperson said: "Motorists are advised Howden Hall Road at Howden Hall Drive and Alnwick Hill, is closed as emergency services deal with a crash involving a pedestrian and vehicle.

"Police were contacted around 2.35pm today.

"The pedestrian has been taken to hospital and enquiries are ongoing.

"Please avoid the area."