

Police issue update on Stenhouse assault and appeal for information

Police Scotland has issued an update on last night's serious assault in the Stenhouse area.

Officers say that an investigation is now under way after two people were seriously assaulted in Saughton Mains Street, Edinburgh.

Police were initially called to the Stenhouse Drive area around 5.30pm on Thursday, 27 February, 2025 but enquiries have established the incident occurred in Saughton Mains Street.

Officers now believe those involved were known to one another.

The 38-year-old woman and 35-year-old man were taken to hospital. The man remains in hospital and the woman has been discharged.

A spokesperson said: "Enquiries are ongoing to establish the full circumstances. Anyone with information is asked to call us on 101, quoting incident 2761 of 27 February, 2025."
