

Scotland v Italy – in photos

Scotland got their 2025 Guinness Six Nations off to the perfect start with a 31-19 victory over Italy at Scottish Gas Murrayfield on Saturday afternoon.

The Scots scored their first try of the championship with barely three minutes on the clock. From a quick tap penalty five metres from the line, Rory Drage dived over the line and Finn Russell added the conversion. Read the full report here.

Scotland off to a winning start to the 2025 6 Nations championship beating Italy 31-19 at Scottish Gas Murrayfield on Saturday 1 Feb.

Photo by Ian Jacobs

Scotland off to a winning start to the 2025 6 Nations championship beating Italy 31-19 at Scottish Gas Murrayfield on Saturday 1 Feb.
Photo by Ian Jacobs

Scotland off to a winning start to the 2025 6 Nations championship beating Italy 31-19 at Scottish Gas Murrayfield on Saturday 1 Feb.

Photo by Ian Jacobs

Scotland off to a winning start to the 2025 6 Nations championship beating Italy 31-19 at Scottish Gas Murrayfield on Saturday 1 Feb.
Photo by Ian Jacobs

Scotland off to a winning start to the 2025 6 Nations championship beating Italy 31-19 at Scottish Gas Murrayfield on Saturday 1 Feb.

Photo by Ian Jacobs

Scotland off to a winning start to the 2025 6 Nations championship beating Italy 31-19 at Scottish Gas Murrayfield on Saturday 1 Feb.

Photo by Ian Jacobs

Scotland off to a winning start to the 2025 6 Nations championship beating Italy 31-19 at Scottish Gas Murrayfield on Saturday 1 Feb.

Photo by Ian Jacobs