

Chris Cadden signs new deal to stay at Hibs until summer of 2027

Chris Cadden has signed a new two-year deal with Hibs.

The 28-year-old has put pen-to-paper on a new contract that will see him stay at Easter Road until the summer of 2027.

'Cadds' joined Hibs in January 2021 from MLS side Columbus Crew and has become a fans' favourite during his time at the Club.

He has gone on to make 129 appearances for Hibs in all competitions and won the Club's Player of the Year award at the conclusion of the 2021/22 campaign.

So far this season, he has been virtually ever-present making 28 appearances.

On the right wing-back's new deal, Hibernian FC Head Coach David Gray commented: "We're really pleased that Chris has committed his future to Hibs; he thoroughly deserves this new deal.

"During my time at the Club, he has been performing at a high-level and been a mainstay of the starting XI. He's a model professional at the training ground, a great character in the dressing room, and understands what it means to play for Hibs.

"We look forward to continue working with him over the next two seasons."

Hibernian FC Sporting Director Malky Mackay added: "Chris is a top professional and is exactly the type of character we want at Hibs.

“Every squad needs players who are role models for youngsters. Those who lead by example, in terms of how they train, how they act day-to-day and how they represent our badge. Chris embodies these qualities and the culture at HTC is better for him being part of our club.

“We look forward to seeing him perform, with that consistency he has shown, over the next couple of years.”
