

Cousin Trophy winners at Curl Edinburgh are Team Keron

The Cousin Trophy, first played for in 1950 at Edinburgh Curling Club, was given a major revamp in its 75th year and in the new format Team Keron lifted the venerable silverware from competition that included players from Canada, Denmark and England.

Rather than running a season long round robin league the competition was converted into a two day, four game. Bonspiel, with eight teams taking part at Curl Edinburgh.

After three rounds the teams were split into a top four high road and bottom four low road. One more round of games were played with all teams still in contention for a prize.
