

Eleven Hibs players on international duty

There are eleven Hibs players on international duty over the upcoming international break.

Nectar Triantis, Lewis Miller and Martin Boyle – Australia

The trio are representing the Socceroos for their upcoming World Cup qualifiers against Indonesia (Thursday 20 March, kick-off at 9:10am) and China (Tuesday 25 March, kick-off at 11am).

This is Triantis's first call-up for Australia – which is thoroughly deserved for his impressive performances throughout the season.

The box-to-box centre-midfielder has been one of the first names on the team sheet for David Gray – registering eight goal contributions in 26 matches.

Martin Boyle and Lewis Miller have also been included in Tony Popovic's 26-man squad. Miller will be hoping to add to his nine caps, whilst Boyle has scored nine times in 30 appearances for Australia.

Nathan Moriah-Welsh – Guyana

Nathan Moriah-Welsh has been called up to Guyana once again.

Guyana are taking part in the Concacaf Gold Cup qualification preliminary round against Guatemala.

The Golden Jaguars will play a two-legged tie – the first leg takes place on Saturday 22 March, with the return leg on Wednesday 26 March in Guatemala.

The winner of the tie will qualify for the group stage of the 2025 Concacaf Gold Cup.

Rocky Bushiri – DR Congo

Rocky Bushi is also on international duty – flying out to DR Congo for their World Cup qualifiers.

DR Congo host South Sudan (Friday 21 March, 4pm kick-off) and (Tuesday 25 March, 9pm kick-off) as they look to build on their positive start to their qualification campaign.

Rocky has been a mainstay in the DR Congo squads over the past few years, however, he hasn't featured in a game since January 2024

Alasana Manneh – The Gambia

Alasana Manneh has been called up to represent The Gambia for their World Cup qualifiers against Kenya (Thursday 20 March, kick-off 7pm) and Ivory Coast (Monday 24 March, 7pm).

Alasana already has 18 international caps to his name after making his debut in May 2016.

Nohan Kenneh – Liberia

Nohan Kenneh – currently on loan at Ross County – is also on international duty, representing Liberia.

Liberia host Tunisia and São Tomé and Príncipe in the World Cup qualifiers. To date, Kenneh has 14 international caps to his name.

Murray Johnson – Scotland U21s

Murray Johnson has been named in Scot Gemmill's 24-man squad for two upcoming friendly matches in Spain against Republic of Ireland and Iceland.

Johnson – who is currently on loan at Queen of the South – has featured for Scotland U17s and U19s and could make his U21 debut later this month.

Scotland are heading out to Spain for both friendly matches – which take place on Friday 21 March (7pm kick-off) and Tuesday 25 March (1pm kick-off)

Joseph McGrath & Rudi Molotnikov – Scotland U19s

Academy talents Joseph McGrath and Rudi Molotnikov have both been called up to Neil MacFarlane's Scotland U19 squad.

The young Scots also head to Pinatar, Spain, where they will play two friendly matches. The first of which is against Sweden on Wednesday 19 March before taking on Poland three days later.

This will be McGrath's first call-up to the Scotland U19 squad, whilst Molotnikov has made 12 appearances at this age grade – scoring three goals.

Lewis Gillie – Scotland U17s

Lewis Gillie made his Hibs first team debut earlier this year, coming off the bench against Clydebank in January.

The young defender has now been called up by Scotland U17s! The young Scots host North Macedonia, Romania and Liechtenstein in three UEFA League B Round 2 matches in March.
