

Emergency services at scene of crash in Dalkeith

Emergency services are at the scene of a crash in Midlothian.

Officers are advising motorists to avoid the Lauder Road area of Dalkeith which has been close to facilitate an investigation and removal of vehicles.

A Police Scotland spokesperson said: "Lauder Road in Dalkeith is closed following a crash involving an e-scooter and a car that was reported to police around 10.30am on Friday, 7 March, 2025.

"Emergency services are in attendance and drivers are advised to avoid the area."