

Hibs youngster Murray Aiken joins Bonnyrigg Rose on loan

Hibs youngster Murray Aiken has joined William Hill League Two side Bonnyrigg Rose on loan until the end of the season.

The central midfielder spent the first half of the campaign on loan at Airdrieonians, making 19 appearances in all competitions, scoring one goal.

The 20-year-old will now join up with 'The Rose' for the second half of the season.

Managed by former Hearts striker Calum Elliot, Bonnyrigg currently sit eighth in League Two.

On the loan move, Hibs Sporting Director Malky Mackay commented: "This is another good opportunity for Murray to gain regular football at a senior level.

"He's a determined young player who wants to develop, and this loan move gives him the best possible platform to do that.

"We wish him the best of luck for the rest of the season."
