

It is all about model railways at LifeCare this Friday

LifeCare Edinburgh are holding a free monthly talk on Friday afternoon when everyone is welcome.

The talk will feature train enthusiast Eddy Williams who will give his views on "The creation of model railways".

The event takes place in the fully accessible community cafe, CaféLife, on Cheyne Street in Stockbridge.

The talk is free for all (but donations to the charity are welcome) with no booking required and begins at 3pm on Friday 14 March.
