

Michael McIndoe wins his third Scottish League Two Glen's Manager of the Month award

Michael McIndoe has earned his third Scottish League Two Glen's Manager of the Month award this season after delivering an unbeaten set of results in February.

McIndoe's side picked up the full 12 points on offer across February's fixtures, which saw Edinburgh City score victories against Stirling Albion, Forfar Athletic and Elgin City, as well as a notable 5-0 win over The Spartans.

Edinburgh City currently sit in third position in the League Two table.

Colin Matthews, CEO of Glen's owner the Loch Lomond Group, said: "Edinburgh City continues to go from strength to strength this season under the diligent leadership of Michael McIndoe. After achieving an impressive string of results in February, City has earned their position as one of the top three teams of the Scottish League Two table.

"Now with three Glen's Manager of the Month titles firmly under his belt, Michael McIndoe is proving himself as one to watch as the rest of the season unfolds. My congratulations go to Michael once again for this strong performance in February."

McIndoe, said:“ This recognition is for everyone at the club – players, staff, and the entire backroom team. We’ve worked hard to get to this position, but there’s still a long way to go. The focus remains on maintaining our standards and pushing on.”
