

More good news for Hibs fans

There is some more good news for Hibs fans on the back of their derby win.

As the club looks forward to celebrating their 150th anniversary season, Hibs have committed to hosting and delivering a wide range of different events and projects.

To mark the milestone, the club has today announced that Season Ticket prices have been frozen once again for the 2025/26 campaign

As per previous years, Hibs say that they are trying to make prices as affordable as possible for their supporters – offering a range of finance options and special Early Bird Discount pricing.

Supporters can save up to £20 off the cost of their Season Ticket by purchasing before 5pm on Friday 2 May.

Ticket prices start from £375 for adults, with the cheapest child ticket frozen at £70! Alongside the various pricing categories – which include U13s, U18s, Students, Over-65s and accessible tickets – a new Hibs Kids graduate discount is on offer.

For youngsters who no longer qualify for the Hibs Kids programme, this new offering will give all previous Hibs Kids members – who are turning 13 – the opportunity to purchase an Under-18 Season Ticket with a 25% discount!

All current Season Ticket Holders currently have their seat reserved for renewal.

Supporters have until the Seat Release Deadline of 5pm on Monday 31 March to renew their existing seat or move to another available seat within the Stadium!

These payment options have been hugely popular with supporters in recent years, and the club are excited to be able to offer a wide range of flexible finance options for the 2025/26 campaign.

Supporters can split the cost of their 2025/26 Season Ticket over a four-month or six-month period using the completely interest-free direct debit option. Or, make the most of a longer-term finance options with Club Partner, Capital Credit Union.

There are a range of benefits included with the cost of a 2025/26 Season Ticket! For the upcoming campaign, Hibs will be reintroducing the Open Door Day at Easter Road, which all Season Ticket Holders will be available to attend for free – along with the Open Training Session event.

As part of the 150th celebration, all Season Ticket Holders will receive a special commemorative pin badge and will be eligible for discounted tickets for the historic 150th Anniversary match with Rot-Weiss Essen.

All Season Ticket Holders will also get various discounts on events throughout the season, venue hire, hospitality and Stadium kiosks.

Seasonal hospitality memberships are also now available for renewal for 2025/26.

All current hospitality members have until the Seat Release Deadline of 5pm on Monday 31 March to rebook their space for next season.

With Albion Bar and Behind The Goal prices frozen, all seasonal hospitality memberships are available for renewal.
