

Staff achievement awards announced at The Old Manor

The Old Manor Hotel along with its parent business, Pettycur Bay Holiday Park, has recognised some of the top performing employees, with its annual staff achievement awards.

Long serving hotel porter, David Morrison, has been recognised at the Old Manor as Employee of the Year.

Gillian Page, who has worked behind the bar at Horizons restaurant at Pettycur Bay for over thirty years. receives the Outstanding Achievement Award.

Bay Hotel Housekeeper, Fiona Swain who has worked at the busy Hotel for the past eighteen months was named employee of the Year.

Pettycur Bay Holiday Park Director, Tommy Wallace, said: "These hard working and committed individuals are all absolute stars, putting a great deal of effort into their daily jobs, whilst being well liked by both colleagues and customers.

"We've always had a policy of handing out staff achievement awards across all our businesses, as we like to say thank you, and acknowledge good work. Many of our employees are local people, and some, like David, Christina and Gillian, have been with us for a long time."

Open evening

The awards come as The Old Manor announces it is to hold a special Open Evening on 18 April 6.30pm – 9pm, to offer an opportunity for local people to find out about the hotel's facilities for weddings, events and dining.

The Old Manor Hotel retained many of its long term local staff when purchased by the Wallace family, including Christina Kennedy who is now Operations Manager.

Christina Kennedy at the Old Manor

Christina Kennedy said: "We've been very busy indeed since the Wallace family took over, renovating and refreshing many areas of the Old Manor, work which is still continuing. All day dining is available in our light and airy Seaview Conservatory restaurant, with weddings and events well catered for in the Hotel's fine function suite.

“With so much work having been carried out over the past few years, we are very keen to show off the Old Manor to the local market. It's been a labour of love from the present owners who have been committed to bringing the Hotel back to its former glory as one of the premier seaview Hotels in Lundin Links.

“We are confident that local people will very much enjoy seeing what we have done, especially those that used to frequent the Old Manor in the past. Maybe they've not been in for a while for a meal or a drink? We want them to know that we've got locally sourced drinks, signature cocktails and a wide-ranging, affordably priced new spring menu.

“Any local couples who are recently engaged, and looking for a wedding venue, should know that we have dates available this year, and into next. Come along on 18 April, and view the Function Suite which will be fully set out.

“Throughout this Open Evening, those attending can enjoy a light finger buffet. Our helpful and committed team will be hand to show them around. We're looking forward to very busy Spring here at the Old Manor, with Mother's Day and Easter coming up as well.”

Business Awards

The holiday park has also been announced as a finalist in three categories of the prestigious Fife Business Awards 2025, run by Fife Chamber of Commerce – the Tourism and Hospitality Category, the Medium Business Category, and the Family Business of the Year category.

Mr Wallace said: “These finalist listings are fantastic news.

“To be a finalist in all three categories we entered is amazing. We are keen to support the work of Fife Chamber, so decided to give these awards a go, as they are ones we had not entered before. We seem to tick a lot of the boxes, especially in the Best Family Business category. The awards night takes place this Friday 16 May 2025 at the Old Course Hotel, St Andrews. The judges have visited us to carry out some filming. It was very exciting indeed.”
