

Two men sought after spate of car crime in Livingston

Police in West Lothian are appealing for information following a number of vehicles being broken into and damaged in Livingston.

Between 12am and 7am on Sunday, 2 March, 2025, officers were called to reports of a total of 12 vehicles being targeted in the Craigshill, Pumpherston and Howden areas.

Two of the incidents happened on Dee Drive, Craigshill, and three were in Drumshoreland Road, Pumpherston.

Items were taken from within some vehicles and others were left with damage to their windows.

Enquiries have been carried out, including reviewing CCTV footage, and officers are looking to identify two men believed to be involved in the incidents.

The first man is described as wearing a red hoodie with the Hoodrich logo in white writing across the chest, dark trousers and a baseball cap.

The second man is described as wearing a green hoodie with dark trousers, and also wearing a baseball cap.

Constable Michael Summers said: "Enquiries are ongoing to trace those responsible for this reckless behaviour, and we are appealing to anyone who may have witnessed anything or saw anything suspicious to contact us.

"We also ask anyone with private CCTV or dash-cam footage of the areas at the time to come forward.”

Anyone with information is asked to contact police quoting reference 1108 of 2 March, 2025, or make a call anonymously to Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.
