

Woman 22 arrested in connection with fatal crash in Corstorphine

A 22-year-old woman has been arrested following a fatal crash involving the driver of a car and a pedestrian in Edinburgh.

The incident happened around 5.45pm on Monday, 30 December, 2024, on St John's Road, between the Drumbrae roundabout and Corstorphine Bank Drive.

The pedestrian, an 87-year-old woman was taken to hospital, where she died on Friday, 3 January, 2025.

A police spokesperson said that the 22-year-old woman was released pending further enquiries.