

Kathleen McGovern ‘caps’ off tremendous season with international call up

Hibernian Women’s Kathleen McGovern has been named in Scotland Women’s National Team Head Coach, Melissa Andreatta’s first squad ahead of this month’s UEFA Women’s Nations League double-header against Austria and the Netherlands.

The striker replaces team mate Eilidh Adams in the squad.

Following her unveiling at Hampden Park last week, Andreatta has picked a squad which blends youth with experience as Scotland look to get their first points on the board in this campaign and retain their place in League A.

Captain Rachel Corsie returns along with experienced left-back Nicola Docherty. The defensive duo return to the fold along with Kirsty Howat, Brogan Hay and McGovern who secures her first senior call-up. They replace Kirsty Hanson, Leah Eddie, Claire Emslie, Adams and Kirsty Smith.

This year’s Nations League campaign will draw to a close with a home match against Austria on Friday, 30 May at Hampden Park ahead of the final match away to the Netherlands on Tuesday, 3 June.
