

Man 24 missing from Clackmannanshire has links to Edinburgh

Police are asking for help from the public to trace a 24-year-old man reported missing from the Clackmannanshire area who has links to Edinburgh.

Adam Busby was reported missing on Saturday, 10th May 2025.

The last confirmed CCTV sighting of Adam was in Glasgow City Centre on Saturday, 10th May 2025.

He is known to frequent Glasgow city centre, Dumbarton and Kilsyth areas but also has associates in the Edinburgh area.

He is described as 6ft 2 in height, medium build with dirty blown hair in a skin fade. He was wearing a black top with blue jeans. He has a scar on the left side of his face.

Sergeant Anthony O'Reilly, Alloa Police Station, said: "We would ask anyone who has seen him, or knows where he might be to get in touch. I would also like to appeal to Adam himself to contact family, friends or our officers.

"Anyone with information about Adam's whereabouts should call Police Scotland on 101, quoting incident number 0954 of 10 May 2025."
