

Two teenagers arrested following reports of dangerous and erratic driving

Police have arrested two teenagers, a male and female aged 19 and 17 respectively, following reports of dangerous and erratic driving in the Scottish Borders.

On Tuesday 29 April 2025 officers received reports of a car being driven dangerously and erratically on the road known as Langshaw Road between Galashiels and Lauder and also in the Oxton area

Following an investigation the vehicle concerned was traced in the Oxbgangs area.

The teenagers have been charged with road traffic offences.

Police have thanked the public for their assistance.

A Police Scotland spokesperson said: "We received reports of a car being driven dangerously and erratically on the road known as Langshaw Road between Galashiels and Lauder and in the Oxton area on the evening of Tuesday, 29 April, 2025.

"Officers traced the vehicle in Oxbgangs Avenue, Edinburgh and a 19-year-old man and 17-year-old female have been arrested and charged in connection with road traffic offences.

"We would like to thank the public for their assistance."