

Edinburgh Police Boxes – Newbattle Terrace

This box is listed, and when we went to visit it had a poster for a missing cat – so perhaps this empty box is being put to good use, although it has been subjected to a bit of graffiti too.

It had been half-painted in red which signifies it is in private ownership. It was one of the 22 sold in 2012 by Lothian and Borders Police. Do you own it would you like to tell us what your plans are for it?
