STATUE FOR ELSIE INGLIS

HOW TO ENTER?

Looking through the lens of the amazing life and work of Dr Elsie Inglis, pupils will be invited to choose a theme from her life as their inspiration from pioneering physician and surgeon, ardent Suffragist and campaigner for women's medical education to founder of Scottish Woman's hospitals in WW1.

Pupils will be invited to choose to submit their entries in one of the formats:

DESIGN THE STATUE

A drawing of what you think the statue of Elsie Inglis should look like

WRITE A SHORT STORY (max 500 words)

about any aspect of her life, work and legacy

WRITE A POEM (max 20 lines)

about any aspect of her life, work and legacy

THE PRIZES

Individual winner of each category will be announced in December 2022 and receive £100 CASH PRIZE PLUS A £50 BOOK VOUCHER FOR THEIR SCHOOL LIBRARY.

The winning artwork will be used as inspiration towards the sculptor's final design for the statue. The winning poem and short story will be read out at the statue unveiling ceremony on Royal Mile in November 2024.

Supporting resources will be available to download from www.elseinglis.org together with full details about the competition from the beginning of August.
