

ART IN SHOPS & CAFES
Open 1-30 September

Check artwalkparty.co.uk for full details of all participating artists & opening times

25 Tanifiki Scott Hunter
44 Portobello High St

Scott Hunter will show six cyanotype prints recording increased precipitation in coastal locations and connecting its relationship to rising sea levels, creating an immersive and meditative environment for the viewer.
scott_hunter_artist@icloud.com cargocollective.com/scotthunter

30 two sisters Aimee Labourne
218 Portobello High St

Aimee Labourne will exhibit a series of small works on paper about the degradation of peatland in her homeland Shetland, in response to the construction of a new onshore windfarm.
aimeelabourne.co.uk info@aert.co.uk

26 Miros Prom Katy Sawrey
25 Promenade

Katy Sawrey's expansive paintings are inspired by the sea particularly during dramatic stormy weather. Mainly in acrylic on canvas, this year Katy brings the material of salt into her work.
kt.sawrey@gmail.com katsawreyart.com

31 Malvarosa Damian Callan
262 Portobello High St

Damian Callan's paintings of swimmers, at night, in surf and in shallows continue a lifelong passion for figure painting, often combined with sea and landscape, with the figures in motion.
damian.callan@gmail.com
damian.callan@gmail.com

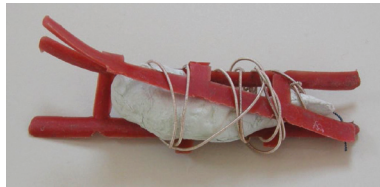

32 Velvet Easel
298 Portobello High St

Summer at The Velvet Easel Gallery - a mixed exhibition showcasing the work of over 100 talented artists, and featuring a wide range of paintings, prints, glass, ceramics, jewellery, gifts and cards.
velveteasel.co.uk art@velveteasel.co.uk

27 Wooton Pharmacy Joan Smith
168 Portobello High St

Joan Smith's window display of Sea Amulets centre on a series of found objects combined with painted clay forms, which explore issues relating to sea pollution and its impact on nature.
JSPortobellooutlook.com joansmithartist@weebly.com

33 Dook Jana Middleton & Susan Wilson
22 Joppa Rd

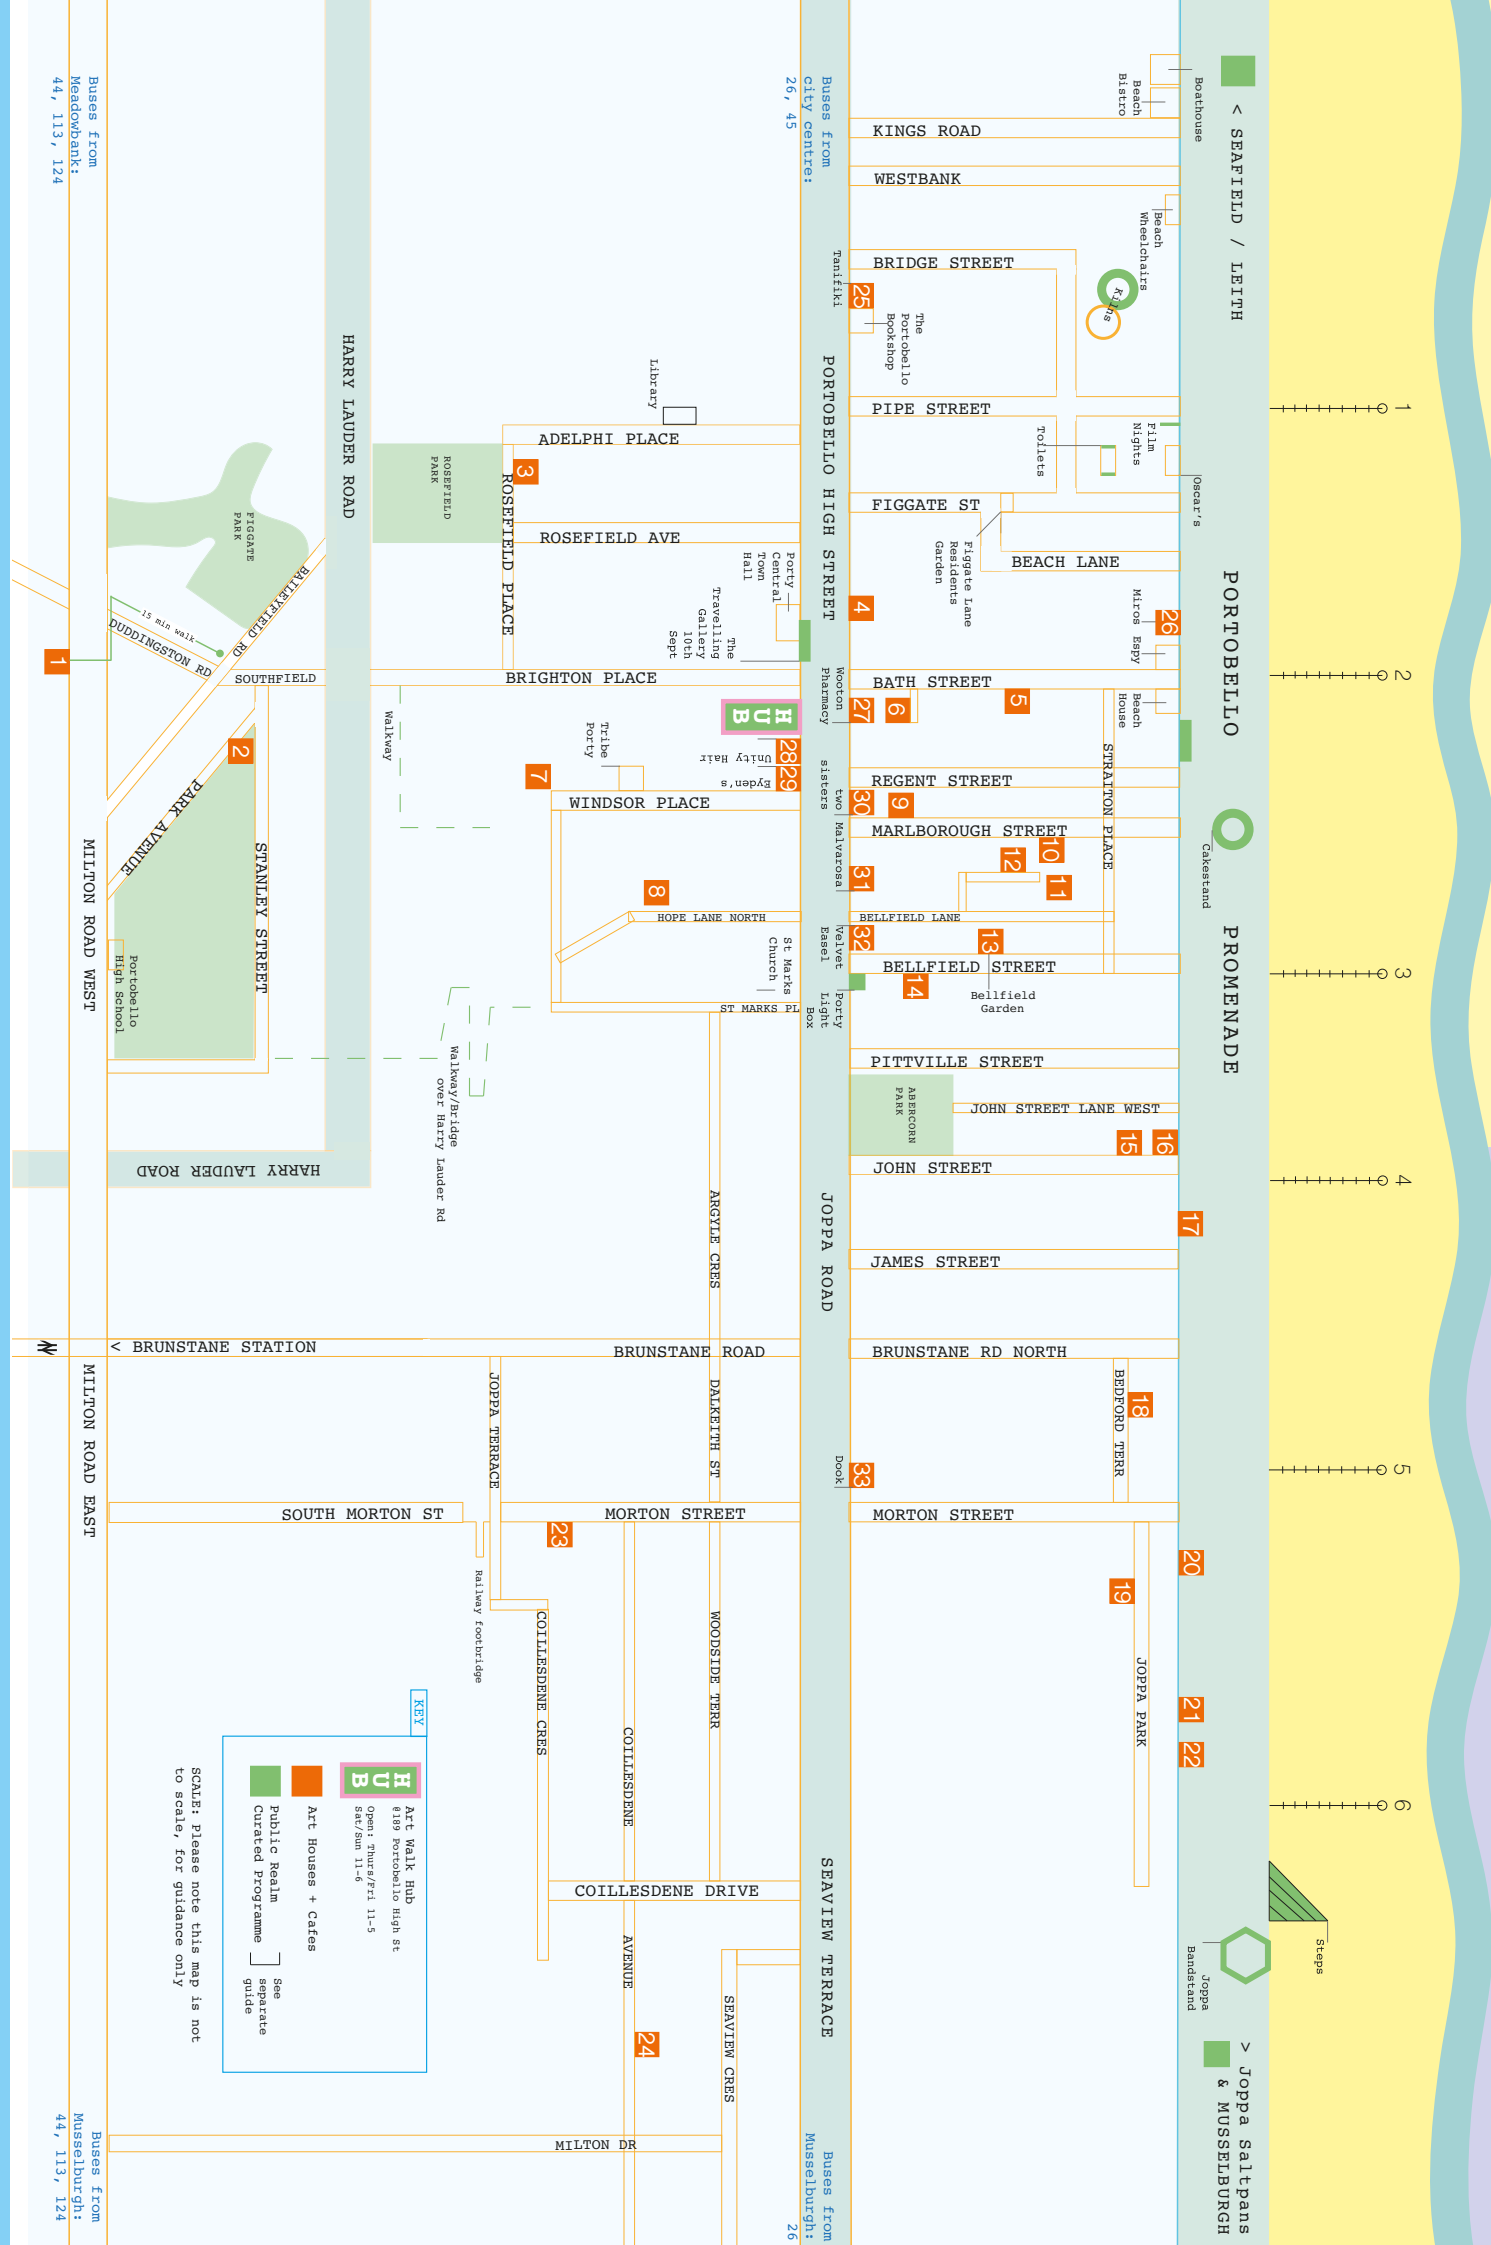

Jana Middleton's stitched textile artwork celebrates the wellbeing benefits of sea swimming with a series of small works & collages exploring sail, wind, tide, water and balance. The work uses sea salt dyeing techniques.
jmmartstudio@gmail.com janamatejkova.com

29 Eyden's Kathleen Crilly
215 Portobello High St

Kathleen Crilly's work explores themes of DNA, bacteria, and nature on a microscopic level. It is inspired by our natural identity in the landscape, made chaotic due to climate change.
Instagram: @kathleencrillyart k.crilly@student.gsa.ac.uk

Susan Wilson shares a series of prints - etching/screen-print combined - using salt as a means of defining the grounds. The images incorporate objects (or sea litter) found on Portobello beach.
susanwilsonprintmaker@gmail.com

ART WALK PARTY FESTIVAL 'SALT' 1-11 SEPTEMBER

ART HOUSES + CAFES

Explore a multitude of exhibitions, artist studios, events & walks at Edinburgh's Seaside, Portobello

Visit Us at the Art Walk Hub @ 189 Portobello High Street
For Curated programme, Exhibitions + Talks OPEN: Thur/Fri 11-5 Sat/Sun 11-6

Festival Preview Event: Weds 31st August 7-9pm With salt-infused canapes from residency artist Mahala le May & sponsored by Bellfield Brewery

Artist Talks, Workshops, & Discussions

Sat 3rd Sept 3-4pm, VENUE 8
Art for Wellbeing Afternoon Bletcher: How does art help us in our lives? What role does art play in supporting our individual and collective well-being? Come along for a relaxed discussion over tea and cake, with some members of the Craigmillar Art Club.

Suns 4 & 11 Sept 3pm, VENUE 6
Artist Talk with Sarah Knox: The Right Ingredients Sarah talks about her art influences, her process (including a sprinkle of salt) and about a wide range of her artworks.

Outdoor Film & Fish 'n Chip Nights on Porty Prom

Sats 3rd & 10th Sept 8.30-9.30pm, Porty Prom by Pipe Street: Join us for two series of programmed film shorts whilst you enjoy some fish n chips from Oscars. Seats provided.

Sat 10th Sept 10-11am, VENUE 9 Workshop with Peter Jones: An introduction to drawing and keeping a sketchbook. Aimed mainly at adults, with a maximum of 10 participants, we will look at some examples of artists' sketchbooks, and take time to draw together - £10 per person. Please email to book in advance peterrhubarb@yahoo.co.uk

Sun 11th Sept 11am, VENUE 16
Artist Talk with Susie Reade: A brief introduction to the different ways people use the marine environment, followed by discussion.

Sun 11th Sept 6-8pm: Closing Event at Beach by Cakestand (nr to Marlborough St). Come and enjoy some apple cuisine, sharing some of our first harvests from the Neighbouring Orchard project, with Annie Lord, alongside exquisite food prepared by wild food chef-forager, Judith Lamb. Sponsored by Bellfield Brewery.

ART HOUSES OPEN
3/4 & 10/11 SEPT sats 10am-6pm suns 11am-5pm

artwalkparty.co.uk @artwalkparty #salt

SPONSORS

doork

Malvarosa
Portobello - Edinburgh

MARK SMITH
GLAZING LTD.

THE VELVET
EASEL
GALLERY

WOOTON PHARMACY

Full Programme at:
www.artwalkparty.co.uk

Enquiries:
info@artwalkparty.co.uk

1 93 Milton Road West

Open: 10/11 Sept only

Ursula Bevan Hunter
Garden studio installation showing lino printed textiles, including large hand printed fabric wall hangings, lampshades, cushions and tea towels. There will be an opportunity to print a lino block from the garden gazebo.
littleaxe.co.uk
info@littleaxe.co.uk

2 77/3 Park Avenue

Carla Johnston
Carla opens her art studio. Inspired by the East coast of Scotland, Carla is informed by the textures and colours of the seaside, from ships to mackerel, to waves and sand.
edinburgharts@hotmail.com

3 16 Rosefield Place

Julia Macaulay
Portobello and Cockenzie are the inspiration for this body of work, with a personal response to the subject. A layered history, a love of colour and a strong memory connection pervades each piece.
jooliahere@yahoo.co.uk

Jan Coventry
Implicit in this series of mixed media paintings is the healing power of the sea. Jan is intrigued by the story of Lot's wife, with 'looking back' a source of inspiration.
w.coventrywaugh.weebly.com jan.coventry@btinternet.com

Norman Colville
Norman works with woods from all over the world - oak, elm, laburnum, iroko, azoba, sycamore, cherry. He makes table lamps and fruit which highlights the natural wood colour and uses offcuts to produce toys and other objects.
Norman.colville@gmail.com

4 130 Portobello High St

Claire Macdonald
Relief prints and screen prints on display in the garden. Birds are the main theme with recent new work developing the theme of a bird's eye view of the landscape.
macavaggios.co.uk claire@macavaggios.co.uk

5 21 Bath Street

Jude Nixon
Jude focuses on elemental subjects: seawater, ice, shorelines, borders, discarded objects and relics. Inspired by the beauty of the North Sea she also conveys a sense of loss and urgency needed to protect our ecosystem.
judenixon.co.uk nixon.judith1@gmail.com

6 13/1 Bath Street
entrance off Bath Street Lane

Jane Chisholm
Jane will be showing work in her studio and outdoor area. Centring around the theme of salt she is exhibiting paper textiles, watercolour paintings, and mixed media 3D vessels.
janechisholm.co.uk jane@janechisholm.co.uk

7 53 Windsor Place

Sarah Knox
Sarah Knox presents an evocative collection of over 30 paintings and prints which capture the rapidly changing Scottish landscape with expressive colour, light and atmosphere.
sarahknoxgallery.co.uk sarahknox@gmail.com

Artist Talk: The Right Ingredients
Suns 4 & 11 Sept, 3pm

8 10/4 Hope Lane North
Open: 3/4 Sept only

Connecting Craigmillar
An exhibition celebrating artwork produced by the Craigmillar Art Club based at the Thistle Foundation. The show will include many different artforms including painting, tapestry, printmaking and illustration.
connectingcraigmillar.org connectingcraigmillar@gmail.com

Sat 3rd Sept, 3-4pm Art for Wellbeing Afternoon
Blether

9 15 Marlborough Street

Peter Jones & Craigmillar Art Club

Craigmillar Art Club, working with Peter Jones, are creating a Craigmillar & Niddrie book of paintings of local buildings. The book and paintings will be the main focus of this exhibition.
peterjoneshouseportraits.co.uk peterhubarb@yahoo.co.uk

Sat 10th Sept, 10-11am an introduction to drawing and keeping a sketchbook

10 36/2 Marlborough Street

Caroline Convey
A series of lino prints inspired by the sea birds on the Forth Estuary, drawn while on boat trips around the islands on the Forth, and printed back in the studio.
carolineconvey.com enquiries@carolineconvey.com

11 4 Bellfield Terrace Accessed off Bellfield Lane

Nicky Sanderson
Nicky takes inspiration from the islands of the Forth and Outer Hebrides. She uses mixed media on paper and canvas to create rich surfaces and depth of meaning in her work.
nicksysanderson.co.uk nicky@nicksysanderson.co.uk

12 The Ramp House, 9e Bellfield Lane Films shown in window all day

Greta McMillan
Greta is currently exploring digital artworks using a Tobii 'eyegaze': a precise electronic device responsive to the human eye. Her works explore the theme of 'SALT' and the climate emergency.
studiogreta.co.uk chambersmcmillan@icloud.com

Bea McMillan
Beatrice McMillan is an intuitive artist who uses varied recycled materials, to explore concepts such as food waste, scale, and the female gaze. Her work encourages interaction and play.
Inst. @b.mcmillan.art

13 Bellfield Garden
Open: 3/4 Sept only

Aurora Pinyes
Aurora is a self-taught ceramicist (originally training as a plant biologist). She creates organic clay forms, using mostly hand-building techniques. During the pandemic she started to make outdoor ceramic pieces to complement plants in a garden setting which she will be presenting a collection of during Art Walk Porty.
auroraclaywork@gmail.com Instagram: aurorapinyes_ceramics

14 17 Bellfield Street
Open: 3/4 Sept only

Mary Drummond
Mary works in glass, making pieces which are predominantly glass fusion. This involves cutting, painting, and layering the glass, before it is fused together in a kiln. Each piece is unique.
marydrummond.artweb.com mary_drummond@hotmail.com

Denise Horn
Stained glass panels and sculptures incorporating a mix of glass techniques: painted, stained and fused. The work will include pieces that consider the shoreline and its changing shape.
Fb. @denisehornglassart horndenise@aol.com

15 6 John Street

Dylan Bell
A bright selection of works, predominantly on paper, using painting and printmaking techniques. A range of thematic ideas around local/social history, the built environment, nature and pop culture.
bellsgalleries.co.uk info@bellsgalleries.com

16 10 John Street

Susie Reade
The theme of this show is The Rough and the Smooth: paintings and prints of rough seas contrasting with calm, salt water in wartime and peacetime, lifejackets next to woven fishing floats, torpedoes beside elegant coastlines.
susiereade.wordpress.com susiereade@gmail.com

Artist Talk Sun 11th Sept 11am

17 71 Promenade

Karl Stern
The show comprises paintings and handmade collagraph prints, framed and unframed, of figurative and landscape subjects. A wide selection of the artists gift cards will also be available.
sternbyname.com karlfstern@hotmail.co.uk

Javier Ventura
Javier's painting is closely related to the sea and the light. It is a symbolist, surrealist and literary interpretation, with an enigmatic atmosphere which tells stories related to the landscape and architecture.
venturapintura@yahoo.es

18 21 Bedford Terrace

Daniel Killeen
Multi-disciplinary artist working with precious and non-precious metals, jewellery, sculpture, oil painting and drawing. Inspired by Scottish history, land- and seascape, as well as the textures found within the environment.
danielkilleen.com
Killeen.daniel@gmail.com

19 4 Joppa Park

Mary Walters
A series of artists books, prints and hangings inspired by the edge of the sea which will include where possible marks made by the salt water itself.

mary-walters.com mary.walters7@gmail.com

Jacqui Higgs
Paintings in watercolour, oils, wax, salt and collage, inspired by a trip to the Faroes and Iceland. There will also be work exploring the coastal paths and the former saltpans of Prestonpans.
jacquihiggs.co.uk higgshiggs429@gmail.com

20 7 Esplanade Terrace Disabled access through back lane Joppa Park

Jenny Martin
Jenny is a painter and printmaker and is showing works in both media. Screen prints, linoprints and collagraphs will sit alongside paintings inspired by the local seascape and the interior of her house and studio.
jennymartinartist.co.uk jennymartinart@gmail.com

21 31 Esplanade Terrace

John Thayers
Abstract/geometrical, non-representational 3D/2D work using wood, recycled materials, metal, Perspex, spray paint and acrylic paint, along with paintings and collage using mixed media, exploring both urban and natural landscapes.
shorelineartworks.co.uk j.thayers08@btinternet.com

22 33 Esplanade Terrace

Zoe Kean
Zoe makes work through drawing, painting, and printmaking, including etching, monoprint, collagraph and linocut. She creates bold, textural work inspired by the constantly evolving, multi-layered nature of the environments we live in and influence.
zoekean.weebly.com
z.kean@ntworld.com

James Kean
James creates interesting and imaginative products from wood, sometimes pictorial in nature, sometimes more functional yet still sculptural. Found objects and recycled mechanisms find new lives within inventive creations.
technocroft.co.uk technocroft@btinternet.com

23 61 Morton Street
Open: 3/4 Sept only

Jenny Capon
Jenny makes prints and drawings that combine watercolour drawings of British birds and animals with vintage (1930s-1960s) Ordnance Survey maps.
jennycapondraws.com jennycapon@gmail.com

24 57 Coillesdene Avenue
Open: 3/4 Sept only

Michelle Lowe
Lively colourful slipware pots that are made for use. The pieces have fun, illustrative decorations with themes including hedgerow plants and berries, wild swimming, bikes, and pottery collections.
michellelowepottery.co.uk info@michellelowepottery.co.uk

Anna Liebmann
Willows cut and grown ecologically in Scotland make Anna's functional and decorative works alive with beauty and nurture. Drawing on traditional basket designs and heritage weaving skills, Anna will have baskets, homeware, jewellery, plant supports, and willow available for people to smell, feel and weave!
annaliebmann.net annatalamh@googlemail.com

KEY  Open studio is ALSO open during the week mon-fri 5th-9th by appointment only. Please email the artist to arrange.  Disabled or part-disabled access.  Studio includes outdoor aspect. ART HOUSES OPEN 3/4 & 10/11 SEPT - check individual entries for variations